OUR FAVOURITE CLIMBS

COLL DE RATES

A beautiful climb, loved by many pro cyclist, topping out at 632 meters. This climb is just over 6.5km long with a gradient average of 5%.

PUERTO DE BERNIA

The Bernia is a beautiful climb which starts from the town of Xalo. With a 12.5km ascent with an average gradient of 4.3% taking you through rural countryside, almond groves twisty roads and some of the areas most oldest vineyards.

VAL DE EBO

A definite contender to being our most favourite climb in the area. The average gradient of 6% and 8km in length. The numerous bends and switchbacks, combined with the stunning views make this worth the pedal power.

CASTELL DE GUADALEST

One of our longest days on the bike with the amazing climb up to Guadalest, climbing through forest, and valleys dotted with old stone houses, all the way to spectacular Castell de Guadalest with its rocky pinnacles and ancient castle. Gradients are around 3-5%. A fantastic day on the bike.
